

MEET THE INSTRUCTORS

Rebecca Mailloux

Head Women's Golf Coach

Camp Director

Rebecca Mailloux is entering her twelfth season as head coach of the women's golf team at Grand Valley State. Mailloux joined the Laker program after a four-year stint as head coach at Saint Leo in Florida. A 2001 graduate of South Florida, Mailloux spent four years on the LPGA Futures Tour. A native of West Warwick, R.I., Mailloux was the Rhode Island women's amateur champion from 1996-2000, finished second in the Massachusetts Open in 2001, returning in 2003 to win the championship. She was voted the 2002 Rhode Island female athlete of the year.

Axel Ochoa

Assistant Women's Golf Coach

Assistant Camp Director

Axel Ochoa is entering his third year on the Grand Valley State women's golf coaching staff as an assistant coach. This is Ochoa's first coaching job.

Ochoa, who hails from Buenos Aires, Argentina, played collegiate golf for Oklahoma Christian University from 2007-2011, where he was a member of two NAIA National Championship teams.

Since his time at Oklahoma Christian, Ochoa has held multiple positions in the golf world. Most recently, he's been the owner and head golf recruiter of his own website, which looks to connect South American golfers with universities in the United States. In addition to his work in golf, Ochoa has also held jobs as a commercial analyst and public relations and sales manager in Buenos Aires.

Gary Bissell

Head Men's Golf Coach

Assistant Camp Director (High School Camp Only)

Gary is in his fifth season as the head coach of the men's program. Bissell played at Ferris State for five seasons. After earning his degree in marketing in 2012 Bissell gave private lessons at the Rick Smith and Jason Guss Golf Academy at Treetops Resort in Gaylord, MI for two years. During the winter of 2013-14 he played professionally on the Florida Professional Golf Tour. Most recently, he was an instructor at the Jason Guss Academy at Hawk Hollow in Bath, MI.
